Zero Waste USA is hosting the fourth annual National Zero Waste Conference this Fall. The two-day virtual event will feature national experts discussing hot topics and emerging trends - Zero Waste Businesses & Institutions on October 2 and Zero Waste Communities on October 3.

The 2022 and 2023 conferences each attracted over 400 registrants. A diverse range of participants took part -including large and small businesses, NGOs, government agencies and universities.

Please join the growing list of sponsors supporting this popular event as well as Zero Waste USA's training programs and advocacy - in Zero Waste, circular economy, waste prevention, reuse, recycling and composting. Sponsors enjoy:

- EXPOSURE to leading national and international Zero Waste practitioners
- ACCESS to the latest industry news and virtual networking technology
- RECOGNITION in conference print, media and online content as well as during the event
